

Workshop:

How to succeed in an ERC grant application?

June 28, 2017 (Staszic Palace, Nowy Świat 72, Warsaw)

08.30 - 09.00	Registration and welcome coffee
09.00 - 09.05	Welcome address – prof. Paweł Rowiński, V-ce President of the PAS
09.05 - 09.25	What is ERC looking for? Excellence of researchers and research ideas. Prof. Andrzej Jajszczyk, Member of the Scientific Council ERC, AGH University of Science and Technology, Polish Academy of Sciences
09.25 - 09.35	Imperial's Research Office support to ERC applicants – Lynne Cox, Director of Research Office, Imperial College
09.35 - 09.45	Excellence in Science Department's support to ERC applicants – Director Ewa Kuśmierczyk, Director of Excellence in Science Department, PAS
09.45 - 10.00	Why is it worth applying for ERC grants? – Marta Kowol, Excellence in Science Department, PAS
10.00 - 10.30	How to prepare a competitive ERC proposal: hints and tips for success – Carole Meads - Research Office, Imperial College
10.30 - 11.00	Perspective of an ERC panel member – prof. Kazimierz Rzażewski, Center for Theoretical Physics Polish Academy of Sciences (PE panel)
11.00 - 11.15	Coffee break
11.15 - 11.55	Perspective of an ERC panel member - (LS panel)
11.55 - 12.35	Perspective of an ERC grantee – dr Niamh Nowlan, Imperial College (PE panel)
12.35 - 13.15	Perspective of an ERC grantee - dr Mark Isalan, Imperial College (LS panel)
13.15 - 13.25	Closing remarks
13.25 - 14.00	Lunch
14.00 - 16.00	“Speed consulting” session – individual consultations between ERC experts and selected ERC applicants